1. Partnership and Communication: Voxel Teleradiology partners with various teleradiology and AI reporting platforms. We do not engage directly with doctors. For any inquiries or issues, please contact us first. We will facilitate communication with our partnered platforms to resolve your concerns.

2. Limited-Time Agreements: Our partnerships are based on time-limited agreements. If an agreement ends, we will seamlessly transition your center to an alternative platform. Access to previous data or reports will only be available if we continue our association with the former platform; otherwise, retrieval of past reports will not be possible.

3. Report Validity and Liability: Our reports are based on the provided history and data and serve as expert opinions. They are not valid for Medicolegal Cases (MLC), insurance claims, fitness certifications, or any official medical investigations. In peer reviews, variations in opinions may occur.

4. Report Discrepancies: In case of discrepancies or uncertainties in a report, we recommend re-evaluating the report and reassessing the patient to ensure accurate diagnosis and care.
